Property History

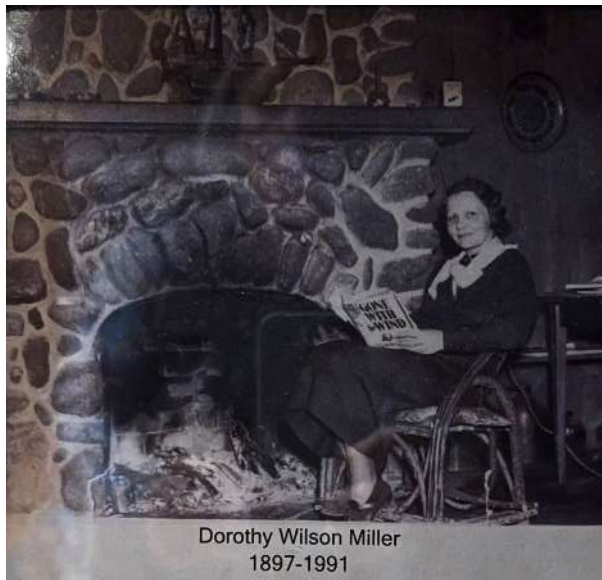

Inverness Inn, 13996 N Territorial Rd. | Gregory, MI

The Inverness Inn at North Lake was the first community establishment in Dexter Township. The property upon which the Inn stands is part of a land grant to John Glenn, signed by President Andrew Jackson in 1836.

Mary Wright, Glenn's great-granddaughter, established the site as a trading post of sorts in 1907. The original building still stands and is home to the tavern and Moose's log cabin was added to the original structure in the late 1970s.

North Territorial Road, was originally a horse trail and later developed as a route used by coaches and vehicles traveling to Jackson Michigan, and beyond to the "North Territories".

Mr. Douglas Fraser developed the land surrounding the Inn during the 1920s, known as Park Law Subdivision this development included homes, cottages, beaches, athletic fields, and the Inverness County Club and Golf Course.
